Scholarship Request

Step 1. Your child's enrollment form and fee must be returned to the Administrator before scholarship request can be considered.

Step 2. Complete the following request and include each child's name that is applying for a scholarship.

Step 3. Write a letter explaining why assistance is important for your student(s). This letter may be typed or handwritten.

Step 4. Return this request and your letter to Mrs. Anita Hauf, Administrator. You will then receive an information packet to formally apply online through Confidential Financial Services, the company we partner with to determine scholarship eligibility.

       (Must be completed)

Yes, we do we meet the eligibility guidelines as stated above. I understand that the scholarship payment for school year requested will continue only as long as the student is enrolled in Stillwater Christian School, attends regularly with passing grades and I keep my share of the tuition and fees current. I also realize that scholarships are privately funded. Funds are limited and all requests may not be filled.
