Stillwater Christian School's definition of "accepting Christ" is based upon having a "salvation" experience in accordance with Romans 3:23 "for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God" and Ephesians 2:8 "through grace are you saved, not of yourselves, it is a gift from God, not by works". This is a specific time that the individual can point to that they confessed they are a sinner, repented and asked Jesus Christ to live in their heart and be evident in their life.
